DETAILED ACTION

This Office Action is in response to the Election filed February 5, 2009 for the above identified patent application.

Election/Restrictions

1. Applicant's election of Group III in the reply filed on February 5, 2009 is acknowledged. Because applicant did not distinctly and specifically point out the supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election has been treated as an election without traverse (MPEP § 818.03(a)).
2. Claims 14, and 18-22 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected Group, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on February 5, 2009.

Priority

3. Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

4. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

5. Claims 23 and 24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

A. In claim 23, the limitations "the lubrication spaces" (lines 2-3), "the sealing elements" (line 3), "the main bearing" (line 4) lack proper antecedent basis.

B. In claim 24, the limitation "the drive flange" lacks proper antecedent basis.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

7. Claims 13, 15, 16, 23, and 24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over of Bouché (USP 7,225,698) in view of Takechi (USP 7,100,469).

Bouché discloses a gear mechanism, comprising an output shaft (8) which is mounted in a housing (5) and which is assigned an output gear (7) which interacts with a drive gear (6), wherein the gear mechanism is formed in a modular fashion having different driving stage portions arranged in front of the output gear so as to be capable of being plugged in a modular fashion in one and the same central flange of the housing in order to drive the output gear of the output shaft.

Bouché does not disclose the gear mechanism as a hypoid gear transmission, however it was well known to use a hypoid bevel gear arrangement as a gear reduction device. For example, the prior art to Takechi teaches a gear mechanism having a hypoid arrangement. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to replace the gearing of Bouché with hypoid gears, as taught by Takechi, motivation being to provide a particular speed reduction with a predetermined operating capacity for a particular application.

With respect to number of speed stages being connected to the housing, it would have been obvious to use a single, double, or any other number of speed stages coupled to the housing of Bouché for driving the output gear, motivation being to provide a gear device having a wide range modular speed reduction options so as to accommodate many different applications.

Bouché also teaches the modular components having different lubrication spaces (claim 15), the output gear and the output shaft formed as two components.
